

HAPPY

Historical Context What is the time period and place?
What events are taking place during that time in the country/world?
What other developments/events/actions were going on simultaneously?

Audience Who was intended to read/view the piece?

Purpose What is the reason it was written/created?

Point of View Who is speaking? What is their perspective? What is the meaning?

Y Why is it significant? What does it tell us about that topic/era?

 If you are assigned a document from the Voices of Freedom primary source reader, complete HAPPY analysis and answer both questions in the book. Complete this process in your spiral bound index cards using the following format:

SIDE 1 HAPPY analysis

SIDE 2 Questions 1 - 2